

Aug 19 - Oct 27, 1870

1912 Dates J-BK

METZ

During the Franco German War Metz was surrounded by German troops which prevented the escape of General Bazaine. The French held Metz for about 2 mos, when, the provisions having given out, they were obliged to surrender. Negotiations resulted in the capitulation of the town and its forts with all the materials of war, and the French Army as prisoners.

1872

---

After 1870 immigration to U.S. of Italians increased greatly.

Italy had too many people.